The 25-year-old will bring a wealth of experience to the squad, having played for organisations including LDLC, mibr, Envy and HellRaisers. Vanskor, who came close to being picked up by Team EnVyUs last year, was previously rumoured to be facing a transfer to Liquid. "Vanskor has been one of the best players in the French scene for years," NIP CS:GO managing director Daniel Rosen has explained to HLTV.org. "He had a lot of opportunities to join a major roster, but he chose to stay with us and there is no doubt he's the right man for us. He will bring the experience that we lack, because he's been through multiple seasons in an important role." NIP have now locked down five players for the new year following the signing of Aleksis "allu" Jaali and his teammate Patrik "forest" Lindberg, who are bringing in their former coach Karrigan to coach the team. Vanskor is joining the squad. The roster now stands as: Sony today announced the PS4 will be available in Japan starting on April 17th, in both a standard and platinum version for 24,980 yen and 32,980 yen respectively. The company also announced that two versions of the PS Vita, the dual-screen device that can be used as a tablet, will be available in Japan starting on April 15th. The PS Vita will be priced at 20,980 yen and 25,980 yen, with each one bundled with a memory card and additional goodies. Both the PS4 and PS Vita will be available in the United States on April 19th, priced at 19,900 and 24,990 dollars respectively. The PS4 will also be available in Australia and New Zealand on April 26th, priced at 15,500 dollars. For more on the PS4, check out our recent preview
